

Jason Wolf appointed to Construction Industry Licensing Board

Attorney Jason Wolf, shareholder at Koch Parafinczuk & Wolf, P.A. in Fort Lauderdale, was appointed to the Construction Industry Licensing Board by Florida Governor Rick Scott. He will serve a three-year term ending October 31, 2017.

The Construction Industry Licensing Board is responsible for licensing and regulating the construction industry. The board meets regularly to consider applications for licensure, to review disciplinary cases, and to conduct informal hearings relating to licensure and discipline. It engages in rulemaking to implement the provisions set forth in its statutes and conducts other general business, as necessary.

Jason Wolf is a recognized leader in the field of first-party property insurance defense, and has a growing and robust practice in the construction industry. Super Lawyers recently honored Wolf by naming him to its 2014 Florida Rising Stars list, which is an honor bestowed upon only 2.5 percent of the attorneys statewide. He is A/V rated by Martindale Hubbell and was named one of the "Attorneys To Watch in 2013" by Attorney At Law Magazine.

Wolf graduated cum laude from the University of Miami School of Law where he was the articles and comments editor at the Law Review. He earned his B.A. from Grinnell College.

